

DANIEL WESTERN MWIMBE's BIOGRAPHY

Daniel Western Mwimbe is currently the Executive President for United Health & Allied Workers Union of Zambia, a trade union formed out of the amalgamation of two independent unions name; Biomedical Union of Zambia (BMUZ) and Environmental and Public Health Union of Zambia (EPHUZ). He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Biomedical Sciences from the University of Zambia (BSc. BMS), a postgraduate fellowship in Clinical Immunology from Johns Hopkins University- School of Public Health and is currently pursuing Bachelor of Laws at the University of Lusaka. In 2015, Mwimbe joined a research team and worked closely with senior Scientists under the mentorship of Prof. James Chipeta (Late) and Dr. Mable Mutengo PhD. He co-authored several publications under this research team and was later appointed Scientist in-charge and Assistant Director for School of Medicine-UTH Malaria Research Unit (SMUTH-MRU). In May 2015 to January 2016, he was honored with a postgraduate fellowship training in Clinical Immunology at John Hopkins University-School of Public Health (Faculty of Neurology) He was later appointed to the civil service as a Biomedical Scientist in 2016. In 2017, Mwimbe led the process that culminated into the formation of a trade union called Biomedical Union of Zambia and was later elected founding Executive President for the union, the position he held until 2022. He later presided over the amalgamation process that resulted into the formation of United Health and Allied Workers Union of Zambia (UHAWUZ), becoming its interim President, and was on 13th October, 2023, elected Executive President of the Union for the period 2023/24 to 2028/29. In 2021, he served as Acting Executive Director for Advocates for Quality Healthcare services in Zambia (AQHSZ) an organization formed for promoting and advocating for quality healthcare service delivery in the country with much focus on vulnerable communities such as rural and remote communities. He's currently a member of several boards and committees such as the Staff Affairs Committee for Zambia Congress of Trade Unions (ZCTU), the National Human Resource Committee and the Madison Board. His credentials in leadership are exemplary. He is the Co-founder of DANTHEO ENTERPRISE LIMITED as well as founder and Executive Director of SKYLINE PHARMACY LIMITED.